Nominations Sought for the

Candace J. Johnson

Award for Staff Excellence

Do you know a member of the staff who displays excellence every day? A colleague who is generous and compassionate? A person that you can count on to deliver amazing service and even brighten your day?

Show your appreciation of their efforts with a nomination for the Candace J. Johnson Award for Staff Excellence. All regular staff members from the Ann Arbor campus and Michigan Medicine are eligible for the award. Nominations can be made by colleagues, supervisors, or a combination of both.

The award recipient will receive $1,500 and a certificate presented by the Office of the Provost at a personal reception.
