STEP 2: They submit a payroll deduction form (2614) to MET. Once processed, MET will send them a confirmation letter with direct deposit account details.

STEP 3: HR or the employee enters MET's account information as a new direct deposit account on the company's payroll site.

STEP 4: Recognize your commitment to financially empower your employees and advocate a positive influence on their loved one's future.

Employee payroll direct deposit can be started, stopped, or changed at anytime by submitting the MET payroll deduction form. Payroll contributions are made with after-tax dollars.
