

Example – Additional Appointment with Transfer of Tenure

THE UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN
REGENTS COMMUNICATION

ACTION REQUEST: Additional Title and Transfer of Tenure of a Faculty Member

NAME: Jane A. Doe

CURRENT TITLES AND DEPARTMENTS: Associate Professor of History, with tenure, and Associate Professor of Afroamerican and African Studies, with tenure, College of Literature, Science, and the Arts

RECOMMENDED TITLES AND DEPARTMENTS: Associate Professor of History, with tenure, and Associate Professor of American Culture, with tenure, College of Literature, Science, and the Arts

TERM: University Year

EFFECTIVE DATE: September 1, 2006

The Program in American Culture has invited Professor Jane A. Doe to join its faculty on the basis of her strong engagement with the Program for years, serving as an active faculty associate, a member of the Executive Committee, and a participant in the American culture reading group. A significant part of her intellectual community already resides in the Program and her interests in transnational culture, politics, and U.S. empire match extremely well with work currently going on in the Program.

Jane Doe received her Bachelor of Arts at Northwestern University in 1982. She attended Columbia University where she earned her Master of Arts in 1987 and Doctorate in 1994. Professor Doe began her teaching career at the University of Iowa as an assistant professor in 1994. She was appointed as an assistant professor at the University of Texas, Austin, in 1996 and joined our faculty as an associate professor, with tenure, in 1999.

The Executive Committees of the Program in American Culture and the College of Literature, Science, and the Arts, with the endorsement of the Department of History, are pleased to recommend the appointment of Jane A. Doe as associate professor of history, with tenure, and associate professor of American culture, with tenure, effective September 1, 2006.
