ACTION REQUEST: Additional Appointment for a Faculty Member

NAME: John A. Doe

CURRENT TITLE: Professor of Psychology, with tenure, College of Literature, Science, and the Arts

ADDITIONAL TITLE: Interim Director, Program on Organizational Studies, College of Literature, Science, and the Arts

TERM: One Year

EFFECTIVE DATES: July 1, 2004 through June 30, 2005

The Dean and the Executive Committee of the College of Literature, Science, and the Arts recommend the appointment of John A. Doe as interim director of the Program on Organizational Studies, College of Literature, Science, and the Arts, for a one-year term, effective July 1, 2004 through June 30, 2005.

Professor Doe received his Bachelor of Arts, summa cum laude, in social relations from Harvard University in 1960. He attended the University of Oxford, England, where he completed a Bachelor of Arts in philosophy, politics, and economics in 1962 and Master of Arts in 1967. He returned to Harvard and earned his Doctorate in 1967. He began his teaching career as an assistant professor at Wesleyan University in 1967 and was promoted through the ranks to professor. He joined our faculty as a professor in 1988.

Professor Doe's research interests include human motivation, especially power motivation and responsibility; political psychology, including measurement of personality at a distance and psychological factors in war and peace; and authoritarianism. He has been honored with a Rhodes Scholarship and Guggenheim Scholarship, among others. He has published over 120 articles and chapters, many appearing in premier journals and scholarly books.

We are very pleased to recommend the appointment of John A. Doe as interim director of the Program on Organizational Studies, College of Literature, Science, and the Arts, for a one-year term, effective July 1, 2004 through June 30, 2005.
