Candace J. Johnson

AWARD FOR STAFF EXCELLENCE

Do you know a member of the staff who delivers exceptional support? Show your appreciation of their efforts with a nomination for the Candace J. Johnson Award for Staff Excellence.

This award recognizes a University of Michigan staff member who displays exceptional performance, teamwork, and a positive attitude. All regular Ann Arbor campus and Michigan Medicine staff members are eligible and may be nominated by any member of the university community.

Show your appreciation for your staff and coworkers by nominating those who represent all that is brightest and best about our university staff. Nominations are due by October 28. The award recipient will receive $1000 and a certificate presented by the Office of the Provost.
