Use the following worksheet to plan your next crucial conversation.

Get Unstuck

1. Where do you feel stuck (personally or professionally)?

__________________________________________________________________________

2. Unbundle with CPR. Identify:

   Content Issues: ____________________________________________________________
   Pattern Issues: ____________________________________________________________
   Relationship Issues: _______________________________________________________

Which issue do you need to address, and with whom, in order to get unstuck? ________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________

Start with Heart

1. What do you really want:

   For yourself? _______________________________________________________________
   For the other person? _______________________________________________________
   For the relationship? _______________________________________________________
   For the organization (if applicable)? _________________________________________

Master My Stories

1. What stories are you telling yourself about the situation or the person (Victim, Villain, Helpless)?

__________________________________________________________________________
2. Tell the rest of the story. Ask:
   a. What am I pretending not to notice about my role in the problem?
   b. Why would a reasonable, rational, and decent person do this?
   c. What should I do right now to move toward what I really want?

STATE My Path
1. Create a script for how you will begin the conversation. Start with facts, then tell your story, and be sure to end with a question that invites the other person into dialogue.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>THE FACTS</th>
<th>MY STORY</th>
<th>THE QUESTION I’LL ASK</th>
</tr>

</tbody>
</table>

Make It Safe
1. What’s the worst possible response you could get with your crucial conversation?

2. What safety skills would you use to address it (apology, contrast, create mutual purpose)?

3. If the other person misunderstands your intent, what is a contrasting statement you could use?
   - Don’t: __________________________________________________________
   - Do: ____________________________________________________________

Explore Others’ Paths
1. How could you use the “AMPP” (Ask, Mirror, Paraphrase, Prime) skills to help the other person come out of silence or violence?

Move to Action
1. How will you establish a way to follow up after the crucial conversation?
   - Who: __________________________________________________________
   - Will do what: _________________________________________________
   - By when: ____________________________________________________
   - How we’ll follow up: __________________________________________
