We have some of the best and brightest HR professionals working right here at U-M. The Explore HR Program provides an opportunity to leverage talent and continue to bring the HR Community members together through building intentional strong partnerships.

The purpose of Explore HR is to provide our HR professionals the opportunity for exposure with HR professionals and subject matter experts in other functional areas or U-M departments. These partnerships will afford the sharing of information, sharing knowledge and experience, enabling learning and skill building that could inform development, career growth, process improvement, and so much more.
