

Financial Education & Engagement at U-M

Launched in September 2024, the Financial Education & Engagement program within the Office of Financial Aid empowers students to become financially savvy and achieve lifelong financial literacy.

We are the campus experts on financial education! We provide information to help students make strategic and informed choices for financial success during their academics and after graduation.

Topics We Cover

Budgeting, credit building, student loans, HR1 updates (Grad PLUS changes, PSLF), debt payoff, school/life balance, etc.; learning about health insurance and other employer benefit costs.

Who We Serve

Undergraduate, graduate, and professional students, as well as parents of students.

Services We Offer

- Academic Courses (1-2 credits, undergrad focus)
- 1:1 Financial Education Appointments
- Custom Workshops and Tabling to share information with academic classes, UM Programs, and Student Groups

Academic Courses

- Free Intro: Financially Savvy: First Steps in Financial Education (Michigan Online)
- ALA 110 (aka ALA270 F25) – Financially Savvy from the Start, 1 credit hour
- ALA 115 – Financially Savvy Student, 1 credit hour
- ALA 215 – Financially Savvy for the Future, 2 credit hours

Contact

Interested in collaboration or learning more? Want to sign up for a 1:1 meeting?

Please email: Financial.Education@umich.edu

Heather Moore, PhD | Asst. Director, Financial Education & Engagement